

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Ervin Belovics

EDUCATION:

1978-1983 law degree, Faculty of Law of Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest 1990-1993 University of Economics in Budapest

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR AND RESEARCH CAREER:

2007 Ph.D. degree with „summa cum laude” honors, Faculty of Law of the University of Pécs; Title of Ph.D. thesis: “Conflicts of Values-Interests as Obstacles to Criminal Prosecution”

2012 Habilitation degree, Faculty of Law of the University of Pécs; Field of research: “Lawful Accusation”

2014 professor, Head of Department at the Faculty of Law of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University

LANGUAGE SKILLS:

- German at intermediate level
- English at basic level

CAREER EXPERIENCE:

1983-1984 trainee judge, Budapest 20th District Court 1984-1985 trainee judge, Supreme Court 1985-1989 judge, Ministry of Justice
1989-1990 judge, Deputy Head of Unit, Pest Central District Court

Prosecutor working for the Office of the Prosecutor General:

from 1993 Head of Unit, Office of the Prosecutor General from 1995 Deputy Head of Department, Office of the Prosecutor General from 2000 Deputy Prosecutor General for Criminal Cases from 1996 adjunct lecturer, Faculty of Law of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University from 1999 adjunct senior lecturer, Faculty of Law of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University from 2008 full-time Head of Department, associate professor, Faculty of Law of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University from 2014 full-time Head of Department, professor, Faculty of Law of the Pázmány Péter Catholic University from 1994 adjunct lecturer, Faculty of Law of Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest

from 2009 part-time senior lecturer, Faculty of Law of Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest
from 2015 adjunct professor, Faculty of Law of Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest

MEMBERSHIPS

Membership in national and international organizations:

from 2011 Hungarian Academy of Sciences from 2006 IAACA (International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities)